Kubb

Viking chess

1 | 'Kubb' – Original Viking Chess

The throwing game dating back to the Vikings has been rediscovered. 'Viking chess', also known as 'Kubb', is played by 2–12 competitors aged 8 and above. The aim of the game is to be the first to knock the 'servants' over on the battlefield and then knock over the king. Lots of fun for lively outdoor competitions. High-quality product made of waterproof rubber wood.

- Includes:
- 1 king (7.2x7.2x30 cm)
 - 10 'servants' (6x6x15 cm)
 - 6 throwing blocks (4x30 cm)
 - 4 marking sticks (1.8x30 cm)
 - 1 weatherproof carrying bag
 - 1 set of instructions

2 | Mölkky

The new Viking trend! With skittles and a throwing pin. Knocking one skittle down awards the number of points on the skittle but if more than one skittle is knocked down, then one point is awarded for each skittle. The aim: to be the first to get to 50 points – but beware: whoever goes over the target loses points. Lots of fun for all ages with real excitement until the very end. Handmade and made of untreated, sustainable wood. Incl. wooden box and instructions (in German) with scoring table. LxWxH: 34x23x19.3 cm. For 2–6 players. Suitable from 5 years +.
